ANGELMAN
SYNDROME
THERAPEUTICS

The Foundation for Angelman Syndrome Therapeutics (FAST) will be hosting its Annual Global Summit on Angelman Syndrome from Friday, December 2, 2016 through Saturday, December 3, 2016, at the Hyatt Regency Chicago.

This two day event will kick off with Angelman Syndrome science and educational seminars led by the world's leading experts in Angelman Syndrome, followed by a star-studded fundraising Gala. The FAST Gala is the largest celebrity fundraising event in Chicago with past guests including Colin Farrell, Jai Courtney, Vincent D'Onofrio, Zachary Levi, Richard Marx, Rosie Perez, Retta, Keith Semple, Jesse Lee Soffer, and Wilmer Valderrama. Guests have repeatedly traveled from around the globe to meet their favorite celebrities and enjoy performances by the Shannon Rovers, Trinity School of Dance and 7th Heaven Band. It is a truly magical evening, like no other, with dining, dancing, laughter and life-changing experiences.

Angelman Syndrome (AS) is a severe neurological disorder that affects motor coordination, balance and speech. It causes profound developmental delays and epilepsy. AS affects 1 in 15,000 children, regardless of gender or race. AS has been cured in the laboratory with multiple approaches. Several human clinical trials for the treatment and cure of AS are scheduled to begin within the next 24 months.

FAST is a non-profit charitable organization as described under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. FAST was formed in 2008 and immediately captured the community with a fresh energy, an aggressive approach to AS research, and a concise mission to bring practical treatments into current medical practice as quickly as possible.

We ask for your support in the form of a donation to the silent auction and raffle that will be held during the Gala. Please refer to the attached form for your contribution.
